

Mercy Flight Central Employment Opportunity!

New York State's only nationally accredited air medical communications center is looking for qualified applicants for the position of Communications Specialist. The Communications Specialist is vital to the day-to-day operations of critical care air medical transport throughout New York State as well as the continental United States and Canada.

Candidates for this position should possess:

- Minimum of 1 year as New York State certified EMT-Basic or higher
- Current CPR certification
- Previous experience as emergency services dispatcher preferred
- Ability to maintain composure under pressure
- Ability to work in mild/moderate stressor environment
- Ability to multi-task
- Strong computer literacy
- Strong customer service skills

Job duties include:

- Processing transport requests
- Radio communications
- Mission documentation
- Routing business calls

Benefits include:

- Full medical & dental insurance
- Sick & emergency leave
- Paid vacation
- Retirement benefit

Start / training rate $10.00 per hour

Interested? Visit www.mercyflightcentral.org and click on "Careers at MFC" or call Human Resources at (585) 396-0584 for more information.

Mercy Flight Central is an equal opportunity employer.