

Smoke, Flames and Courage II

*An Antique Muster and Firefighter Appreciation Day
“Celebrating Firefighters Past and Present”*

September 6, 2008
10:00AM to 4:00 PM
Charlotte Harbor, Rochester, NY

A Day Long Family Event Emphasizing Fire Education and Safety and the Understanding and Appreciation the History of Firefighting

Come One and All, Bring the Family, and Witness:

- Antique fire apparatus on display and in action
- Rochester Fire Department apparatus and firefighters in action
- Rochester, Monroe County and New York State police agency displays and demonstrations
- U.S. Coast Guard demonstrations
- Children’s activities including participating in bucket brigades, operating a fire hose, trying on fire gear, finding their way out of a smoke house, and learning about family fire safety
- See other exciting fire related exhibitions and interactive displays

Free Admission and Free Parking

Presented by the
Genesee Valley Antique Fire
Apparatus Association and the Rochester Fire Department

